
Nice forum!

I have all three next generation consoles and I love gaming. Im a 31 year old kid who enjoys playing online games on the PS3-360 and playing with my family on the Wii. My library is getting pretty big but it beats going out every week-end and blowing money at the bars. At least this way I stay home and keeps my butt out of trouble. If you have any questions about any video games or consoles feel free to drop me an email and I will do my best to assist you with whatever you need.

Hi Zigger,

Welcome to the forum!

Thanks a bunch for offering to help other people with gaming info. That is big of you.

See you on the boards ...
